

Q-Speak

Voice Recognition for Centricity Practice Solution

Q-Speak is a voice recognition solution for Quattris clients. The Q-Speak solution enables the clinician to speak into a microphone and the words appear in the Centricity Practice Solution clinical record.

Advantages of Q-Speak documentation:

- Seamless cloud-based application completely integrated into the EMR.
- High degree of medical terminology accuracy.
- No training of the application to your voice: excellent recognition even with accented speech.
- Fast documentation - voice recognition can be much faster than templated documentation or typing.
- Great return-on-investment - Q-Speak is very cost effective compared to traditional dictation Services.

Q-Speak also offers different options to based on your practice needs:

QSpeak Anywhere

Cloud-based voice recognition. Integrates with Centricity Practice Solution and provides all the same Dragon functionality as the traditional local client, however, technical issues and requirements are greatly reduced.

QScript

iPad-based application that presents patient encounters on an iPad.

QScripton

Smart phone-based application that presents patient encounters on the providers iPhone or Android device. The provider dictates in a free-form manner on the phone and then information is retrieved back into the update in Centricity Practice Solution.

PowerMic Mobile

A mobile phone-based application for use with Q-Speak, which allows the users iPhone or Android device to be used as a microphone rather than a USB microphone.
